City of Waco Parks and Recreation to celebrate National Bird Feeding month with 2K “Welcome Back Birds” fun-run

WHAT: City of Waco Parks and Recreation will host a 2K fun-run to celebrate National Bird Feeding month and educate participants about bird migration.

As birds are returning back to Waco from their journey South, we want to educate Waco residents on the importance of caring for them. Guests are welcome to stop at the end of the trail to pick up a bird feed pack to help feed our birds. Participants can expect food trucks and other family-friendly activities like bird house making, a “meet the birds” booth and a scavenger hunt to keep children entertained.

WHEN: Saturday, Feb. 24, 2024

- 2K begins at 10 a.m., participants are encouraged to arrive by 9 a.m.
- Bird feeding begins at 11 a.m.
- Event ends at 4 p.m.

WHERE: Cameron Park Clubhouse, 2601 N University Parks Drive, Waco, TX 76708

- Brendan Wiley, director of the Cameron Park Zoo
- Members of the community participating in run and feeding birds
- Jonathan Cook, director of the City of Waco Parks and Recreation

About City of Waco Parks and Recreation:

The City of Waco Parks and Recreation department strives to offer year-round activities that everyone in the community can enjoy. From community events to outdoor enrichment activities, we create unique experiences for residents of all ages and abilities. Our department maintains 66 parks, keeping the trails clear and facilities safe for use. Together, we ensure that Waco residents have easily accessible spaces to get outdoors and into nature without having to worry about what to expect when they get there.
